

Windward Community College Common Book Program Spring, 2007 Events

Tuesday, January 30, 2007 • 4:00 p.m

David McClain

President of the University of Hawai'i
Akoakoa 105, Windward Community College

Tuesday, February 20th, 2007 • 4:00 p.m

Erik Gardner

Nickel and Dimed: Communist Manifesto?

Philosophy Instructor, Windward Community College
Akoakoa 105, Windward Community College

Tuesday, March 13, 2007 • 4:00 p.m

Ann Wright

Flattened Diplomacy in Corporate Globalization

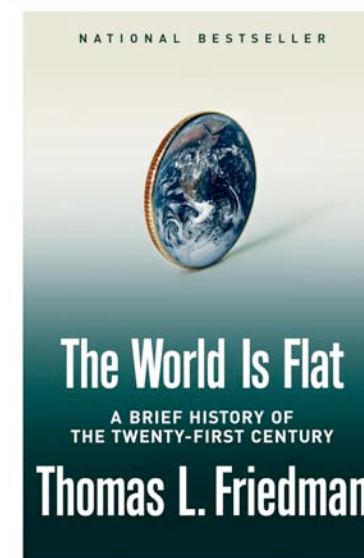

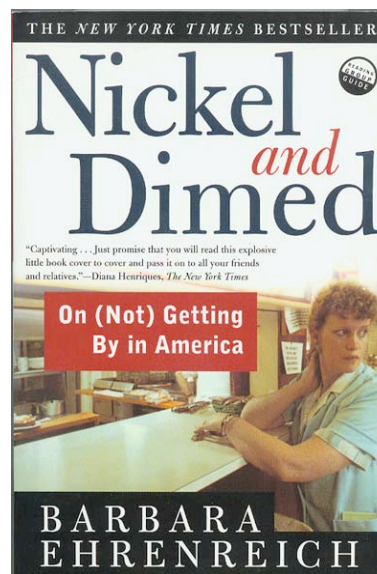

Former Diplomat
Akoakoa 105, Windward Community College

Tuesday, March 20, 2007 • 4:00 p.m

Ruth Hsu

Men, Women, and Global Capital

Professor, University of Hawai'i at Manoa
Akoakoa 105, Windward Community College

Thursday, March 22, 2007 • 4:00 p.m

Vilsoni Hereniko

The Land Has Eyes

Film presentation and discussion

Professor, University of Hawai'i at Manoa
Akoakoa 105, Windward Community College

Thursday, April 12, 2007 • 4:00 p.m

Jay Fidell

Training Hawaii's Young People for Leadership in a Flat World

Honolulu Attorney and host of ThinkTech Hawaii
Akoakoa 105, Windward Community College

All events are free and open to the public

Co-sponsored by the Pacific and Asian Affairs Council (PAAC) the University of Hawaii Women's Campus Club and the Hawaii Council for the Humanities

For more information, visit <http://www.wcc.hawaii.edu/CommonBook> or email Brian Richardson at <richards@hawaii.edu>